

MxPx, Brokenhearted

Im brokenhearted, brokenhearted for you
So dont get me started on repairs
I know what youre gonna do
Youll break it again
I know I cant win
Youll just break my heart again

You chose the words you knew would make me cry
You've probably done it to a hundred guys
Im not crying, I got something in my eyes
You said you never really felt a thing
You said you didnt like the way I sing
Im not crying, but my eyes they really sting

Im brokenhearted, brokenhearted for you
So dont get me started on repairs
I know what youre gonna do
Youll break it again
I know I cant win
Youll just break my heart again

You slapped my face before you said good bye,
Called me a loser hoping I would die
Im not crying, I got something in my eye
You said you never really felt a thing
You said you didnt like the way I sing
Im not crying, but my eyes they really sting

Im brokenhearted, brokenhearted for you
So dont get me started on repairs
I know what youre gonna do
Youll break it again
I know I cant win
Youll just break my heart again
