

MxPx, Jay Jay's Song

i am myself and no
one else because my eyes see so much negativity pressuring me every day thy judge me as something i'm not there's so many lies in this world today fears and doubts run thru my mind i've gone thru this a million times i read his word look to his face but i could never earn his grace it's not right to sit at home we're the church of today not church of tomorrow
