

MxPx, On The Outs

(feat. Benji Madden of Good Charlotte)

On the outs,
When she don't like you anymore
On the outs,
Your picture's shattered on the floor
On the outs,
Your clothes are scattered out the door
On the outs,
When things just don't seem like before

So you want to get her back now,
But you don't really know how
You've tried everything, and nothings working

What would be your first clue,
That she don't really like you?
Was it the way she never had much to say?

On the outs,
When she don't like you anymore
On the outs,
Your picture's shattered on the floor
On the outs,
Your clothes are scattered out the door
On the outs,
When things just don't seem like before

Do you need a sample?
Or maybe an example?
Of real life and forgiveness to get over this

So take a little time out,
And learn that you can live without
A dead-end girlfriend that you've put all your faith in

Manipulation's cut your throat,
And now there's blood stains on your coat
