

My Brightest Diamond, Golden Star (Alias)

I always felt so far from you
Like something wasn't right
But tonight
I rest my head inside the crook of your arm
& I feel like a golden star

Exploding(tonight we are full)
Exploding(tonight we rejoice)
Exploding(you are my golden star)
Exploding

Though everything has come undone
The distance between us closes
And everything is suddenly

Exploding(tonight we are full)
Exploding(tonight we rejoice)
Exploding(you are my golden star)
Exploding

Tonight we are full up
In spite we rejoice
Tonight we are full up
In spite we rejoice

Like stars exploding
