My Chemical Romance, Jack The Ripper

[Originally by Morrissey]

Oh, you look so tired Your mouth is slack and wide You're ill-housed and youre, You're ill-advised I bet your face is as mean As your life has been

And oh, you look so tired Well but tonight you presume too much Too much, I said too much and if it's the last Thing I ever do I'M GONNA GET YOU

Crash into my arms I WANT YOU You don't agree But you don't refuse I know you

And, oh I, I know a place Where no one is likely to pass Oh, you don't care if it's late And you don't care if you're lost

And oh, you look so tired Well but tonight you presume too much Too much, I said too much And if it's the last Thing I ever do I'M GONNA GET YOU

Crash into my arms I WANT YOU You don't agree But you don't refuse I know you

Come on! Let's go!

And oh, you look so tired Well but tonight you presume too much Too much, I said too much And if it's the last Thing I ever do I'M GONNA GET YOU

Crash into oh my fucking arms I WANT YOU You don't agree But you don't refuse I know you [x2]
