My Former Self, Run Away From Everything

Run away from everything
Catch me if you can

I never thought
I'd live in a world
That fell to disarray
But I saw that day
A shattered sanctuary
Spilled quickly through my fingertips
Like million drops of rain
Falling Falling
Catch Me If you can

Run Away From Everything
Catch Me If You Can

I need a one way ticket to anywhere
But here is not my
Home is something sacred
Its what you make it
Just not when you're alone

And I'll be everyone at once

Run away from everything catch me if you can
