

Mya, Fear Of Flying

I've got a fear of flying on a plane cause we have no say in how it ends up. well in my mind, luv's the very same way that's why i never give my heart to no one i never take a chance on a love that lifts me off the ground (oh yeah) i cling 2 earth bound things but i wanna spread my wings somehow (somehow) i've got a fear of flying high but im prepared 2 spread my wings (oh) it's all in my mind

love defines all gravity
voices in the wind
i can hear 'em welcoming me to fly think im flyin high flying high flyin high i've been in love but i fell too fast I found myself in turbulent skies I felt the hurt when I crashed and burned Then I found myself with tears in my eyes But when you look at me something says it's gonna be all right (gonna be all right) all right (gonna be all right) and all my fears i'll faced cause i think im gonna take this flight

but im prepared 2 spread my wings (oh)
it's all in my mind
voices in the wind

ohhhh suddenly something beyond the clouds is calling me and your love to me is like therapy for my soul so i'm ready to soar fear of flying high (think i'm think i'm) it's all in my mind (think i'm think i'm) voices in the wind (think i'm think i'm) think im flying high flying high flying high
