

Mystic Circle, Shadows Over Worms

As the festivals were over a double wedding were at the cathedral Siegfried married his Kriemhilde, Gunther married Brunhilde but this bound before their god was under a terrible omen.
Brunhilds eyes were colder and her only thoughts were revenge then an advice came the king of Denmark wants war with bounded king Ldeger who was the great king of Sachsen Gunther was faced with sorrow but Siegfried spoke to him that they should fight the war and took the kingdoms both an army of 1000 man rides the Burgunds and the Nibelungen knights on Siegfrieds side were Hagen Von Tronje and behind them the bravest warriors.

as the bloody war began there were no prisoners made king of Denmark were soon dead and the king of Sachsen too. with this triumph Siegfried went to his wife they went back to Netherlands cause his mother died Siegfried get the crown from his father Siegmund he was the new king noble and righteous and for many years they lived full of peace far away at Worms there were someone who hadn't forget years of hate and thoughts of death were in Brunhilds mind but she had a plan inside day of revenge is near she would never be the queen on king Gunthers side in the night she spoke to Hagen about Siegfrieds death at the feast on solstice it should be.

(Hagen:)
"with the steel of Odins might I will kill him at his back there's only one little place Siegfrieds blood will run out Gunther must give an invitation To Siegfried and his wife they should come to Worms at the day of solstice".

Brunhild talked to her man Gunther that she would see Kriemhild again she should come to visit Worms with her husband and her courtyard and they send a messenger out to the Netherlands to Xanten he should spread the news of the feast and that they come fast.

As Kriemhild heard from the feast she was very happy and she told her man that they move over now so a few weeks later the whole baggage came to Worms not knowing in their minds that it was the last chapter
