

Mystic Prophecy, Children of the Damned

Dark angels screaming my name
With hate take my dreams in a dark room full of nightmares

Can you hear my silent scream
Shadows with demons eyes
No dream are realized
Hellfire made of sins
With the devil for the endless win

My heart and soul to my lord I sold again
And see the dead deep in his eyes
My soul to take 'till the day I'll die

Welcome into my nightmares
Welcome into my world
The darkness is my friend
Children of the damned

Into this secret silence
My lord I pray tonight
Forever in hell descend
The children of the damned

The devil roll the dice
From the blackness they will rise
The ritual has begun
Satan's work forever done

My heart and soul to my lord I sold again
And see the dead deep in his eyes
My soul to take 'till the day I'll die

Welcome into my nightmares
Welcome into my world
The darkness is my friend
Children of the damned

Into this secret silence
My lord I pray tonight
Forever in hell descend
The children of the damned
