

Mystikal, Penguin Freud

No direction
Need protection
All the futures pass with me
Feel rejection, isolation
Still in silence, want to be
Lone in me
Beauty stupid
Nothing but vanity
Can't you see?
Feel deception
Lost direction
Like never before
Like never before
(I still see myself in you now.
Like a lifetime lived before.)
So indifferent
No commitment
Always hiding, safe in me
Close my eyes tight
Just to feel right
But the words mean nothing to me
Beauty stupid
Nothing but vanity
Can't you see?
Feel deception
Lost direction
Like never before
Like never before
(I still see myself in you now.
Like a lifetime lived before.)
Lost in your own world
Trying to see through mine, but I'm just fine
Lost direction
Feel deception
Like never before
Like never before
(I still see myself in you now.
Like a lifetime lived before
