Mystikal, Penguin Freud

No direction Need protection

All the futures pass with me

Feel rejection, isolation

Still in silence, want to be

Lone in me

Beauty stupid

Nothing but vanity

Can't you see?

Feel deception

Lost direction

Like never before

Like never before

(I still see myself in you now.

Like a lifetime lived before.)

So indifferent

No commitment

Always hiding, safe in me

Closé my eyes tight

Just to feel right

But the words mean nothing to me

Beauty stupid

Nothing but vanity

Can't you see?

Feel deception

Lost direction

Like never before

Like never before

(I still see myself in you now.

Like a lifetime lived before.)

Lost in your own world

Trying to see through mine, but I'm just fine

Lost direction

Feel deception

Like never before

Like never before

(I still see myself in you now.

Like a lifetime lived before
