Nadia Ali, Hanging On

Try and try To forget me tonight Carry on The moments you deny I will not repeat The things you've said When I think of them I must forget I can't believe The faith I had in you Move along Carry on I can't keep it Hanging on Move along I'll be gone I can't keep it Hanging on Hanging on... hanging on... Time will pass But it will linger on All the reasons You held will be gone Tell me once again I could be wrong Didn't you once say You won't go on All the things you said Meant nothing true When you burn the bridge You can't return Every season Lessons the concern
