

Nadia Ali, Not thinking

What is it now?
You just want to pick a fight
Is something on your mind?
Baby, we can make it right

I'm sorry I lied but you wouldn't understand it
I didn't really plan it
Oh my, my, I really did it this time

I was at the wrong place at the wrong time
I should've left before that last glass of wine
Wish I hadn't done it, it didn't mean a thing
Please believe I made a mistake

Answer the door
I know you're there, just open up
I'll wait out in the hall
I'll stay until morning comes
I'm sorry I lied but you wouldn't understand it
I didn't really plan it
Oh my, my, I can't lose you this time

I was at the wrong place at the wrong time
I should've left before that last glass of wine
Wish I hadn't done it, it didn't mean a thing
Please believe I made a mistake x2

Please believe I made a mistake
I was not thinking, I was not thinking

Please believe I made a mistake
I was not thinking, I was not thinking

Please believe I made a mistake
I was not thinking, I was not thinking

Please believe I made a mistake
not thinking, not thinking
