

Nailpin, White Lies

So don't you break not now
Because they're all watching
Everyone here is gonna say that you're too weak

Don't you start to doubt yourself
Just walk straight forward
Keep your face up, your eyes shut
Feel the calming breeze

My heart bled so many night in a rox
Please help me, please help me out
I lied for different reasons then yours
Believe me I'm breaking down

So don't give up somehow
This'll soon be over
You know that you will find

A way to make things right

Speak up loud
Just crawl out off your shell
Be real to yourself
Be honest, that's the only way

My heart bled so many night in a rox
Please help me, please help me out
I lied for different reasons then yours
Believe me I'm breaking down

My heart bled so many night in a rox
Please help me, please help me out
I lied for different reasons then yours
Believe me I'm breaking down
