

Name Taken, Someone

You said that you can't be someone, when the world's against you
And this place could not be worse, to much that hurts
So much for you to carry

And you made me think everything was wrong, and everyone except for you and you just can't see that you're to blame for mistakes that you've made

You can lie all you want, doesn't matter much to me
I'm not like you...anymore
Know there's no one else to blame, further of this I believe Trying not to make someone else's mistakes and nothing wakes you up, you'd rather sleep, does life still matter?

wish that i could get you out of bed, we'd move on,
Forget the things that we both said

You can lie all you want, doesn't matter much to me
I'm not like you...anymore
Know there's no one else to blame, further of this, I believe
Trying not to make someone else's mistakes

And when you wait for enemies and friends, don't bother, don't bother coming back You said you could be someone...someone

You can lie all you want, doesn't matter much to me
I'm not like you
You can yell all you want about everything you see There's not much for me to do...anymore
Know there's no one else to blame, further of this I believe
We're not gonna be the same

So let's turn around and let's say goodbye, let's turn around and let's say goodbye Always so alone, I wish that you'd stay...
