

Nana Mouskouri, Love Is All That Matters

1.□

Lost in a dance waiting for a chance
All I really needed was to love you
Night after night searching for the light
"You saved me, you gave me something I could feel";

R.

Love is all that matters faithful and forever
Keeping us together love is all we need
"Prisoner of illusion, sentence is suspended";
Loneliness has ended love has set me free

2.

Dreams from the past coming true at last
Never noticed how my life was changing
Now I can see all that love can be
"You saved me, you gave me something that was real";

Refrain (Bis)
