Nana Mouskouri, Your Heart Is Free

1-

Your heart is free, just like the wind Your hands reach out, but not for mine, now You built your castle out of sand I taste the water, not the wine, now What went wrong, tell me how How could you do this thing to me, my love?

2-

Your heart is free, just like the wind The ring you're wearing isn't mine, now I feel you're with me everywhere And yet, you're only in my mind, now What went wrong, tell me how How could you do this thing to me, my love ?

Repeat 1

3-

Your heart is free, just like the wind I was the giver, not the taker We have a life, so we must live Although we cannot be together What went wrong, tell me how How could you do this thing to me, my love

Your heart is free, just like the wind, my love
