

Narcoze, Avalon

The sword of truth shall make its victims
And a new kingdom shall rise
When the weapons risen
Eyes stare with fear
The knight with the pain in his eyes
The villages in flames
Man covered up in blood
The battle is still the same
Avalon avalon
Waiting for arthur
The king that will come
Arrows cross the sky
Sinkin' in the deepness of the soul
Taking the last breath of life
Of the knight
Elders are praying to god
In the eyes of arthur
Victory glows
The man with the pain in his eyes
The woman with death in her mouth
The boy with fear in his cries
The devil with anger in his voice
The walls around us are crumbling down
