

Natalia Nykiel, Do it again

I always feel like there's some hope
But I know how the story goes
Deep down I know, I'll never learn
You come back, another lesson learned

When it comes to my love
I always touch the heat
God damn, it can be hopeless
But I just want to feel

I'll have one more drink
So I don't have to watch you leave me here
When all of my friend
They want to rescue me
But I do it again
I do it again

I come alive when the fire is close
It won't last but I need some more
I rather wear my heart on my sleeve
Than hide the best in me

When it comes to my love
I always touch the heat
God damn, it can be hopeless
But I just want to feel

I'll have one more drink
So I don't have to watch you leave me here
When all of my friend
They want to rescue me
But I do it again
I do it again

I'll have one more drink
So I don't have to watch you leave me here
When all of my friend
They want to rescue me
But I do it again
I do it again
