

Natalia Sikora, FIERY ANGEL (piosenka na Euro

You hear this hurricane
An echo of depth
The shining of your dreams
I'm so close Take it easy Baby
I will catch your heart
Before it breaks

I come
From the edge of night and day
From whispers of lost faith
The Old Soul gave birth to my voice

I feel this desire
Into you
It kindles in your hands
Thought they shake with cold in time
You want to free
The light of hope

I am your Fiery Angel
Love's eye
Between darkness and light
In scars of goodness
I am burning for you

The only thing I can give you Is a piece of my soul
I have nothing more to give Wake up Baby
Don't go back to what you know
Reach the roots of your light honey
Don't think Just feel Baby
And do it Just do it Just do it Just do it
Only that which is senses survives
You will find what you believe in
And I beg you: Don't you turn your back on love!

I'm burning for you
Every sound in me
Is your prayers
For the light
