

Natalie, Blue In The Sky (Intro)

Im lying on the grass im watching at the sky
i always love your smile and when you say hi

when can you be mine
and then i'll be fine
baby im always free
to you

Today, all i see is

blue in the sky
today will be a brand new day
The flowers will grow
the sun will shine!
and tomorrow
I'll be alright
with you my luck is the blue in the sky

Someday, I hope you will be mine Leave it to the blue in the sky
