

Natalie Brown, Hold Your Head Up High

Its not the way you thought that it should be You did not win
It feels like theres no light, no
A different ending you could not foresee
It dragged you in, oh yes it did

Youve lost your way
A steep price to pay
Strength should prevail
Theres always tomorrow
A new day will follow

So hold your head up high
So hold your head up high
V2 Youve got to play the hand that youre given You cant complain
You move on, stay strong, yeah
You make the path that leads to your heaven Its not in vain, lifes lessons learned

Youll find your way
That price youll pay
Strength will prevail
A new days tomorrow
And others will follow

So hold your head up high
So hold your head up high

You gotta hold your head up high
It will be alright
Oh yes it will
Cuz all you can do is try
You got to dry your eyes
(Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up, get up, get up, get up, get up, get up)
Chorus So hold your head up high
So hold your head up high