

Natalie Brown, Let's Just Waste Some Time

Morning sunshine paints the sky
The nights a lingering goodbye
And I'm so glad we got away
From the same old day-to-day
Making footsteps in the sand, me and you
As we gather scattered seashells
Touched by morning dew, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh.

Lets just waste some time today
Lets just stay away
From the world today
Lets just leave the world behind
Lets just waste some time
Baby, lets unwind

Far away from prying eyes
The ocean bears its cool surprise
Were basking in this perfect day
Until the moon lights up our way
As were walking hand in hand, me and you
Theres a feeling that this moment
Is a dream come true

Oh, Lets
Lets just waste some time today
Lets just stay away
From the world today
Lets just leave the world behind
Lets just waste some time
Baby, lets unwind (X2)
