

Natalie Brown, What's Going On Next Door?

Here I go again
Covering my ears so I dont hear it
(What a doggone shame)
Time and time again
I close my eyes
So I dont see it
(It just feels insane)
But I wanna know

Whats goin on next door?
Its hard to tell for sure
Its not my business, no
What should I do?
What if thats me next door?
Would I want you to know?
If I was hurting so
What should you do?

Its no concern of mine
But I could be mistaken
(Its a chance Ill take)
There might come a time
When its too late
Someones forsaken
(Its a sad mistake)
Still, I wanna know

Whats goin on next door?
Its hard to tell for sure
Its not my business, no
What should I do?
What if thats me next door?
Would I want you to know?
If I was hurting so
What should you do?

I need to know if Im responsible for
My neighbor, or a stranger
But if I wait, it might be to late
For an answer
Wake up people this has got to STOP

Whats goin on next door?
Its hard to tell for sure
Its not my business, no
What should I do?
What if thats me next door?
Would I want you to know?
If I was hurting so
What should you do?
