

Natalie Browne, In My Dreams

Even though we said goodbye quite some time ago
There's a strand of love in my heart
That just can't let you go
It seems that even when I go to sleep
Images of you my mind still keeps

Chorus:

And I still see you in my dreams
No matter how I try it seems
That a deep part of me just can't forget
That a big part of me still has regrets
And I can't seem to let all the love I had for you go
Yes, I still see you in my dreams

Sometimes I wake with your face in my mind
Somehow I thought that I'd left those memories behind
It seems that you have left my heart frustrated
With vivid memories your smile created
