

Natalie Durham, Beautiful

When you look through the window and you see a shooting star I pray you will remember how beautiful you truly are

When you wake in the morning light and the skies are not blue please do not forget that i will always be there for you

When you look through the window
and you see a shooting star

And when the going gets tough well we better get going(going) cuz if life is too much it still is not slowing, slowing down

When you look through the window
