

Natalise, Love Goes On

And on and on and on and on
and on and on and on and on and love goes on and on and on and life goes on and on and on

When I was with you I was always happy and I Dreamt of promises you made to me Now I see you holding hands with another girl and I I cannot understand why you Would ever leave our love behind

Love can set you free, sometimes it's meant to be and love goes on and on and on and on and on and on Love can make you blind, sometimes it's so unkind but life goes on and on and on and on and on and on

And on and on and on and on
and on and on and on and on
and love goes on and on and on
and life goes on and on and on

Maybe we're not meant to be together now I see Never be the one I love...forever It was not okay for you to be untrue and lie to me Don't think that you'll get another chance Cuz you've already lost the key

Love can set you free, sometimes it's meant to be
and love goes on and on and on and on and on and on Love can make you blind, sometimes it's so unkind

And on and on and on and on
and on and on and on and on
and love goes on and on and on
and life goes on and on and on

And on and on and on and on
and on and on and on and on
and love goes on and on and on
and life goes on and on and on

Love can set you free, sometimes it's meant to be and love goes on Love can make you blind, sometimes it's so unkind
but life goes on and on and on and on and on and on

And on and on and on and on
and on and on and on and on
and love goes on and on and on
