Natasha Bedingfield, Chasing Cars

We'll do it all Everything On our own We don't need Anything Or anyone

If I lay here If I just lay here Would you lie with me And just forget the world

I don't quite know How to say How I feel Those three words Have said too much It's not enough

If I lay here If I just lay here Would you lie with me And just forget the world

Forget what we're told Before we get too old Show me a garden That's bursting into life

Let's waste time

Chasing cars Around our heads I need your grace To remind me To find my own

If I lay here If I just lay here Would you lie with me And just forget the world

Forget what we're told Before we get too old Show me a garden That's bursting into life

All that I am All that I ever was Is here in your perfect eyes They're all I can see

I don't know where Confused about how is well Just know that these things will never change For us at all

If I lay here If I just lay here Would you lie with me And just forget the world
