

Nate James, I Don't Wanna Fight

Ohhhhhhhh yeah
I gotta talk to you I need to know from you what we gonna do

(do do do do dododododoo do) x2 back in those early days we were so inching not a damn thing was wrong with how I felt about you we were better, together as two (yeah) So what happened to us from those happy times cause your acting to strange, it dont feel like my girl its such a good thing karmas gonna come and teach your right I gotta let go cuase

I dont wanna fight
just dont need the pain why cant we just figure this out why you wanna fight
love is gonna fade your pushing me so far away girl was cuasing the switch whats possesing you no i ent done a damn thing to you but protect you and love you just like I should (yeah yeah) Ive lost count of the arguments that weve had girl your twisting ideas i just cant stand tell you its a good thing karmas gonnna come round and teach your right (yeah) I gotta let go

I dont wanna fight
just dont need the pain
why cant we just figure this out
why you wanna fight
love is gonna fade your pushing me so far away

(why you pushing me away)

Im just not feeling all this tension you gotta give me back my space so I can love again if you feel sufocated I dont wanna make a show.

I dont wanna fight
just dont need the pain
why cant we just figure this out
why you wanna fight

just dont need the pain
why you wanna fight
love is gonna fade your pushing me so far away
