

Nate James, Justify Me

Can i call you when its crumbling down
I don't wanna do this all alone
Will you help me keep my feet on the ground
When the rest of me is up and gone
Cuz you no, yes you no
Exactly where i'm coming from
And today i just wanna say
I really need you to,

Justify, Justify, Justify me
Open my mind to the things i can be
And i no its ok when you laugh or you cry
I'm Justified, Justified
I'm Justified having your love
It's more than i'll ever deserve
But i need you to justify me,

Theres often times you mend the ends for me
And i never even had to ask, no
Your even there for me emotionally
And you never let me see your back, no
Cuz you no, yes you no
Exactly where i'm coming from
And today i just wanna say
I really need you to,

Justify, Justify, Justify me
Open my mind to the things i can be
And i no its ok when you laugh or you cry
I'm Justified, Justified
I'm Justified having your love
It's more than i'll ever deserve
But i need you to justify me,

And almost everything i do or say
It reminds me of you
So promise that you'll stay
Your so stuck with me
And i never doubt it
I really need you to,

Justify, Justify, Justify me
Open my mind to the things i can be
And i no its ok when you laugh or you cry
I'm Justified, Justified
I'm Justified having your love
It's more than i'll ever deserve
But i need you to justify me
