

Nathalie Nordnes, My Best Friend's Baby

Lock my in forever, darling
Throw away the key
Love has hit me with its arrows
Going crazy as can be

Lock up the door, don't let me out
'Cause what I feel I don't want you to find out
I have fallen in love
I see the famous pink clouds
I have fallen in love with my best friend's baby

Usual things about you
I find them extraordinary
The way you comb your hair
Your style
And your pretended carelessness 'bout me

Stop right there
You tease me
Cannot control this ocean of emotions
I have fallen in love
I see the famous pink clouds
I have fallen in love with my best friend's baby

I don't know how
Or why or where or when
I fell in these circumstances
Move away
I swear I am a loaded gun
A bombe is gonna be blowed off every day

Given a warning quite clear now
Try to avoid you the best I can
'Cause mommy says
"A friend is gonna last forever, and boy comes in the end"

Last night you put your arms around me
Oh, I wish I had my best friend's baby

I have fallen in love
I see the famous pink clouds
I have fallen in love
No matter how much I try to shake it off
I have fallen in love with my best friend's baby
