

Naturally7, Another you

I'm down on my knees will you forgive me
I failed a million times
I treated you so bad
How can you still love me
You wiped my weeping eyes as I cry
I'm so unworthy to be by your side
And I will never forget this moment in time
I'll be needing you in my life
I'll never find another love
I'll never find another you
I'll never find another heart
As pure and true
I love you and everything about you
So lost in a world filled with temptation
I just cannot let go
The ocean surround me
I was sinking so quickly
Holding on I tried as I swallow my pride
I saw life flashing before my eyes
Right then I knew
It was just a matter of time
I'll be needing you in my life
I'll never find another love
I'll never find another love
I'll unbreak your heart
I'm sorry I disappoint you
I love you so much
I'm starting right here
I'm starting right now
Forever I will serve
You'll be honest and true
I'll never find another love
I'll never find another love
