

Naturally7, No fool for you

See I'm here just like before
With my body stretched across the floor
I can't believe I did it again
Did what you said but you turned on me
It's my fault I'm the blame
Cause I knew that to you it's a game
But you can't play me no more
I won't be no fool for you no more
I'll be no fool for you no more
So don't you come knocking at my door
I think that I've seen it all before
I'll be no fool for you no more
I can't believe that I'd ignore
All of the hurt you had in store
I know you lost everything
So don't try to share your guilt with me
It's your fault now you're through
And I'm not going down with you
I should of known from your past
That with you the good times don't last
Now that I let you go I won't be no fool
I'll be no fool for you no more
So don't you come knocking at my door
I think that I've seen it all before
I'll be no fool for you no more
I can't believe that I'd ignore
All of the hurt you had in store
What about the pain you caused
What about the time I lost
What about the price it cost
I'll be no fool for you no more
So don't you come knocking at my door
I think that I've seen it all before
I'll be no fool for you no more
I can't believe that I'd ignore
All of the hurt you had in store
Who's laughing now (laughing) hello
You won't be around next year or tomorrow
I'm done with all that drama so let me holla at cha
You came just like a charmer (you snake) know who you talking to
I'm seeing clearly now before you tried to blind me
I put your lies and all your alibis behind me
Don't waste your time to look
Cause you won't even find me
I'll be no fool for you no more
So don't you come knocking at my door
I think that I've seen it all before
I'll be no fool for you no more
I can't believe that I'd ignore
All of the hurt you had in store
