Nazareth, Changin' Times

When I was younger, I used to understand That when you're with a girl, you gotta act like a man Mama told me that's the way it should be And I know my mama never lied to me.

What do you think about you're changin' times 'Cause when I'm with you, I just can't make up my mind Since I met you, don't know right from wrong Somebody tell me just what's goin' on.

Just can't get myself thinkin' straight I'm all shook up and in a terrible state Sometimes I think I got it all figured out Then you do something new and it just knocks me right out.

Someday, baby, I'm going to have to make a stand The way that you treat me, baby Don't make me feel too much like a man And baby, baby, the changes you're goin' through You're drivin' me half-crazy Can't make up my mind what to do about you.

Tellin' myself that time is on my side You're gettin' this feelin' that my mind's on the slide Dumped on the floor, I feel I'm trapped in a spin Don't know how to end, can't think of where to begin.

She don't care, I know she don't even try But when she turns it on You know, she gets me so high.

She's a lady that's making my life a sin You know that I'm runnin' in a losin' race There ain't no way I can win Baby, baby, the changes you're goin' through They're drivin' me half crazy Can't make up my mind what to do about you.
