

Ne-Yo, Lazy Love

Oooh, Oooh...
Oooh my life...
Oooh my life recall was 11:30
I'm officially the opposite of early
I gotta go downstairs
Everybody waiting down there for me
But I roll over into your curly
And sex your body, oh so nice and curvi
Reminiscing on last night
Wake up baby, let me get it one more time
Before, before, before
I gotta go, I got responsibilities
I gotta take care of, oh-woah, oh-woah
That's when you've got them legs around me
And I fall victim to that lazy love

Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna go nowhere, lazy love
You got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing
You got that lazy love
Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing
You got that lazy love
Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing

Damn baby I was good, i'm gon' hit the shower
Eveyr though i'm about two hours late
But I can't help it man
If the knew what I new, they could understand
I'm washing last night off, time to boss up
When suddenly on my back I feel a soft touch
She's right behind me
Water glisten off her body
Looking at me, like 'one more time'
But baby I gotta go, I got responsibilities
I gotta take care of, oh-woah, oh-woah
That's when you've got them legs around me
And I fall victim to that lazy love

Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna go nowhere, lazy love
You got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing
You got that lazy love
Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing
You got that lazy love
Oh, you got that, I don't wanna
That I don't wanna do nothing
