

Ne-Yo, What

She wanted the money
The fame
The brand names
And fancy cars
She left a hard working man behind
For a fellow with a championship ring
See heres the thing about dating a superstar
She was one of like eight or nine
Just another ball players play thing and Im singing

[Chorus]

Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you
Say aint that your dream come true
Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you, you
Say aint that your dream come true
Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you baby
Whats the matter with you
No one to blame but, you
No one to blame but you, you, you

[Verse 2]

He wanted the money
The fame
The brand names
And fancy cars
Looking up to the pushing man
He wanted to be like them oh so bad
One hell of a price to pay if you get caught
See thats the party didnt understand
Now we sitting in a prison cell ahh man

[Chorus]

Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you
Say aint that your dream come true
Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you
You

Say aint that your dream come true
Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you fella
Whats the matter with you

[Bridge]

All the ladies like the bad boy
So you go and get a bad boy
And he treats you bad
And u act surprised
Be careful what you ask for
You got what you ask for
Tell me why youre mad
Tell me why youre mad
We keep complaining bout we wont change
But half of us dont do a thing
So everything stays the same
And Im asking

[Chorus]

Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you tell me

Whats the matter with you
You cant make our dreams come true
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you
cant make our dreams come true
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you
Cant make our dreams come true
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you tell me
Whats the matter with you
