

Nebular Moon, My Cold Eternity

Now eternity in taking my soul
And I feel like I'm frozen alive
In my heart, there is only keenly emptiness
My blood is yet again like red, cold ice
I, I'm the last one in this cage
Dying for your child, for human race

(Chorus:)

Now I'm seeing your sin, my god
You are the liar of all this past years
Might, it was your only destiny
I wish, that I die alone, without your heed
Let my soul pass away
I don't need your grace - I won't serve
I don't want survive in your world of lies
I'm not your slave, I'm ANTICHRIST

Fall, fall again from grace
Into burning fields of truth
Fallin' down, on earth
Without hope in blind eyes

Now I'm seeing myself in a buried word
Silent screams I hear deep inside my soul
Freezing dreams comes true in my pitch-dark night
From my barren land you can hear me cry
I remember the time, which is pass away
And I feel, that I don't want to return

(Rep. Chorus.)

Time of my low is born - I'm your heir to the throne
Hear my complain - I will raise from my grave
Dawn of my lordship you see, your kingdom is blow away
Pay for your treason now - You will be mine
