

neena (NINA KARPIŃSKA), RUN

I run, I run and I listen
I go, I go and I feel it
I run, I run and I listen
Now I feel the light of morning sun
I feel alive

I haven't felt for a long long time
Or even in my whole life
That I can go on
Even if it's not us
Even if we stay apart

And I don't know why I don't wanna miss it
And I now I need to get back what I've given
It showed to be just a waste of time
Im starting to organize

And I'll never be around
I'm picking the love
You'd better be outside
When I open the door
And I think that's just the time
But it might be just a guess

I go, I go and I think of it
I see, I finally get it
I go, I know I don't need it
Now it's time for me to shine

And I'll never be around
I'm picking the love
You'd better be outside
When I open the door
And I think that's just the time
But it might be just a guess
