

Negative, 1000 Nails In My Heart

I thought that we had fallen in love.
But somehow I felt the nails in my heart.
So deep that I couldn't even scream.
So deep that I couldn't even breathe.

It was all those things you said to me.
Every lie you made me believe..

Days when I cared.
Days when I loved.
Days when I woke and felt those thousand nails in my heart.

Sometimes it's easier to give up.
Than cry and keep on living in those lies. Ooh.

It was all those things you said to me.
Every lie you made me believe!

Days when I cared.
Days when I loved.
Days when I woke and felt those thousand nails..
Days when I cared.
Days when I loved.
Days when I woke and felt those thousand nails in my heart.
