

Negative, Neverending Parade

Loving arms around us
For you're the kind who needs refuge
Your loving eyes see right through me
Cannot play saint
Cannot pretend

Neverending rain on your little parade
Nothing to do with love affair
When heaven cries I will be near you
And walk with you through all your pain

Do not forget what we are
Until the end, meant to be one
When heaven cries and you are gone
You stole my soul
It breaks my heart

Do not forget what we are
Until the end, meant to be one
When heaven cries and you are gone
You stole my soul
It breaks my heart

(And you are gone)
