

Neil Diamond, A Little Bit Me, A Little Bit You

Walk out
Girl don't you walk out
We've got things to say
Talked out, let's have it talked out
Thinks will be okay

Girl,
I don't want to fight
I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right

I said Girl,
You know that its' true
It's a little bit me (a little bit me)
And it's a little bit you.... too
Don't know
Just what I said wrong
But girl I apologize
Don't go... here's where you belong
So wipe the tears from your eyes

Girl I don't want to fight
I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right
I said girl,
You know that it's true
It's a little bit me
And it's a little bit you... too

Oh girl
I don't want to fight
I'm a little bit wrong
And you're a little bit right
I said girl,
You know that it's true
It's a little bit me
And it's a little bit you.... too

It's a little bit me
It's a little bit you
Girl don't go
No no no no no
Girl don't go
No no no no no
Hey girl, please don't go
