

Neil Diamond, Back From Baltimore

Hey, see how she kissed me
Yeah, no reason for the girl to lie
She say she gonna miss me
Yeah, smile on my face, I wave goodbye

But I've been back from Baltimore
For a week or two
I hurried back from Baltimore
Baby, where are you?
Where are you?

Yeah, I'm about to crumble
Yeah, come see me die before your eyes
Yeah, my thoughts all jumbled
And my throat is dry from asking why

But I've been back from Baltimore
For a week or two
I hurried back from Baltimore
Baby, where are you?
Where are you?

[Instrumental]

Girl, I've been back from Baltimore
For a week or two
I hurried back from Baltimore
Baby where are you?
Well, I've been back from Baltimore
For a week or two
I hurried back from Baltimore
Baby, where are you?
Where are you?
