Neil Diamond, I'll Be Back Someday

Goodbye, it's time for me to go So, baby, don't cry I want you to know that, baby I'll be back someday

Cheer up, The skies above are bound to clear up I like to stick around, but baby, I'll be back someday.

Don't be blue, I'll return with love untold When I do, I want you to have and hold

I know that you'll be close to me Wherever I go, So, when I say goodbye, remember I'll be back someday.
