

Neil Diamond, I'm Guilty

Whenever I get down
I look to someone else
I need your love to bring me 'round
And so I must confess
I'm guilty

Of believing you to be
The better part of me
I never thought to look around
In times when more is less
I'm guilty
Guilty of lovin' you

'Cause I need you
Yes and I want you
You know you always bring me through

I'm guilty

And if you want to know
You really let me down
But I won't never let you go
There's something in my heart keeps sayin'
There's something in my heart that's sayin'
You're guilty of lovin' too

And you need me
Yes and you want me
And I won't never let you down
There's something in my heart keeps sayin'
There's something in my heart that's sayin'
You're guilty of lovin' too
I'm guilty
