Neil Diamond, September Morn' stay for just a while, stay and let me look at you it's been so long i hardly knew you' standing in the door stay with me a while' i only want to talk to you we've traveled halfway around the world to find ourselves again

setember morn

we danced until the night became a brand new day two lovers playing scenes from some romantic play september morning still can make me feel that way look at what you've done why you've become a grown up girl i still can hear you crying in the corner of your room and look how far we've come so far from where we used to be but not so far that we've forgotten how it was before september morn

do you remember how we danced that night away two lovers playing scenes from some romantic play september morning still can make me feel that way

sepember morning still can make me feel that way
