Neil Diamond, Shelter Of Your Arms

In this cold world, No matter where I go, The crowds are all the same.

To them, I'm just A pebble in the sand; A face without a name. Nobody gives a hang For what I say or do But you.

And in the shelter of your arms, I find peace and comfort and care. For I am wanted there.

In this cold world, You struggle to survive And sometimes You can fall. You think someone Would lend a helping hand. They'd sooner see you crawl. But just when life itself Seems more than I can bear, You're there.

And in the shelter of your arms, I find strength and safety and then, I rise and start again.

Just give me one good reason To go on living, To keep on trying, For what? I ask you for what, If not for you And all your love To see me through.

But just when life itself Seems more than I can bear, You're there. And in the shelter of your arms, I can find strength and safety And then, I rise and start again.
