

Neil Young & Crazy Horse, Double E

Back in the country, living on the Double E
In the sunshine of her life
There's already a young fellow but Mom and Daddy won't let her leave
Mom and Poppa won't let her go

But when they go out dancin'
She breaks out on her own
She's hot enough to burn the house down
But Mom and Poppa don't know

When Edith and Earl renamed the Double E
They nearly made history
The locals rose up, some of them were mad as hell
Cause it used to be the Double L

Change comes slow in the country
When you're new there's a lot of distrust
Years fly by uneventful
Memories turn to dust

Meanwhile Granny has got her bright colors on
And the sun's shinin' in her eyes
Cruisin' by the bars and honky-tonks where she met Grandpa
And caught that young man's eye

Dusty white El Dorado
Cruisin' through the trees
Slippin' through the shadows
Of what used to be

Back in the days, living in the summer of love
Living in the summer of love
Grandma's okay, not the same since Grandpa's gone
She's living in the summer of love

Back in the days, living in the summer of love
Living in the summer of love
Living in the summer of love
Living in the summer of love

Back in the days, living in the summer of love
Living in the summer of love
