Neil Young, Words (Between The Line Of Age)

Someone and someone were down by the pond Looking for something to plant in the lawn. Out in the fields they were turning the soil I'm sitting here hoping this water will boil When I look through the windows and out on the road They're bringing me presents and saying hello.

Singing words, words between the lines of age. Words, words between the lines of age.

If I was a junkman selling you cars, Washing your windows and shining your stars, Thinking your mind was my own in a dream What would you wonder and how would it seem? Living in castles a bit at a time The King started laughing and talking in rhyme.

Singing words, words between the lines of age. Words, words between the lines of age.
