

Neko Case, This Tornado Loves You

I love writing songs that are already written

Running from cyclones

you must think you've been bitten

Lovely as you are you can't provide a home

If you tried to pick me up I would die in your arms

I use my voice activated dialing to call you up

are you free?

Free as the wind you reply

Lets go get a Starbucks cappuccino and read about Obama in french

I dreamt of drapes and both of us swinging and a blond lady on a swing on a manor

I use my voice activated dialing to call you up

are you free?

Free as the wind you reply
