

Nekromantix, Alice In Psycholand

Living in a dream of a dirty mind playing with a friend called suicide laughing to herself to the end of the line
It really doesn't matter if its wrong or right

Chorus:

Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand

Walking all alone on the edge to hell
Wake up late at night in a rubber cell
Shadows on the wall in the back of the room
Awaiting Mr.Death coming far too soon

Chorus:

Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand

Alice did you wait too long
Alice I wanna be in your song
Alice I wanna stay too long with you to psycholand!

Chorus:

Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand

Alice...Psycholand
Alice...Psycholand
Alice...Psycholand
Alice in psycohland

Chorus:

Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
Walking around talking about Alice in psycholand
